

Malnutrition in older people

Online training module evaluation June 2019

84

people completed the module as of 1st May 2019

94%

of participants would recommend the training to others

9 out of 10

participants felt what they learnt would be useful in their job

What's changed?

On follow-up, 7 out of 10 participants said they felt their clients had benefited as a result of this training.

They have a better understanding of malnutrition

They pay more attention to what clients eat and drink

They are more aware of malnutrition screening

They are aware of the resources available

"I am more confident in my discussions about malnutrition"

"More information [can be] provided on nutrition when talking to clients"

"It has helped increase our usage of the Appetite for Life manual"

"The case studies were particularly helpful"

60% of participants are now using more resources to support clients at risk of malnutrition