Access Mental Health –1800 332 388

In partnership with “A Tasmanian Lifeline”

Access Mental Health:

- Is a regional based service working from North, North West and South.
- operates between 9:00 am to 10:00 pm, 7 days a week.
- is a free call within Tasmania on 1800 332 388
- will determine eligibility for services and prioritise referrals
- can arrange an interpreter for sign language or English translation when required.
- is staffed by community mental health clinicians, who:
 - assess your information and determine the most appropriate action
 - may refer you to A Tasmanian Lifeline, a free mental health support service
 - may refer you to a Mental Health Community team in your area
 - will provide contact details for another service if they are more suitable to assist you
 - may refer you to a Community Mental Health Crisis Response team who are available extended working hours seven days a week.

Calling Access Mental Health

You may wish to call Access Mental Health when you or someone you know is:

- showing obvious changes in mood
- behaving in a disorganised manner
- seeing things that aren't there
- hearing voices
- expressing strange thoughts
- very anxious and fearful
- expressing suicidal ideas or thoughts.

What information will the Access Mental Health clinician need to know?

Please assist us by giving as much information as you can, including:

- the name, address, and the date of birth of the person you are calling about
- the reasons you called Access Mental Health
- if the person has been treated in the past for mental illness and what agencies were involved
- if the person is taking any medication or using drugs and/or alcohol.

The Access Mental Health clinician will ask to speak with the person of concern.

Call 000 Emergency Services first if you or anyone else is in immediate danger.

Call 000 for Ambulance when someone has seriously harmed themselves or someone else, someone appears physically unwell, or may have taken an overdose.

Call 000 for Police when a situation has become violent, someone is threatening to harm themselves or someone else, drugs or weapons are involved.

Emergency Services will contact Mental Health Services if we are required to provide assistance.
